

Einarson, Dawson Wray, Kingston, Ont.; Queen's University, 1952, anesthesia. Died Mar. 9, 2006, aged 82.

“Formerly of Perry Sound and born in Capreol, Ont., dear son of the late Einar and Olive Einarson of Rosseau and loving husband of Eleanor (Taylor) Einarson. Much loved and admired father of Susan (Neil), Ruth (Bryne), Martha (Dave), Elisabeth (Roger), Margaret (David), Sarah (Cliff) and Jeffrey (Julie), and very special grandfather to 13 grandchildren. He was a former Queen's medical school admissions officer and recipient of the Medical School Teaching Award in 1969, 1984 and 1985. As a World War II veteran, he served with the First Canadian Parachute Battalion and received O.M.M. (Order of Military Merit) and C.D. (Canadian Forces Decoration); he also received K.S.T.J. (Knight of the Order of St. John) and was the past Honourary Colonel of The Princess of Wales' Own Regiment.”
